

Immigration Status and Getting Health Care Coverage

STATUS	THIS MEANS THAT YOU...
 Lawful Permanent Resident (LPR)	Have permission to live and work in the U.S. (LPR applicants may also qualify).
 Refugee or asylee	Were granted asylum, or your deportation or removal was temporarily paused.
 Humanitarian immigrant	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Are a Cuban/Haitian national. • Have been paroled into the U.S. or granted temporary protected status. • Are a child who has applied for special immigrant juvenile status.
 Survivor of domestic violence, trafficking, and other serious crimes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Are a victim of domestic violence who qualifies for protection (abused spouses and children, and the children or parents of these individuals) and parents of abusive adult children who are U.S. citizens. • Are an immigrant survivor of human trafficking. • Are a U-Visa holder.
 Valid non-immigrant	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Are a Visa holder who is allowed to and intends to remain in Connecticut from the date enrolled through the remainder of the tax year (such as tourists, students and visitors on business). • Are a citizen of Micronesia, the Marshall Islands or Palau.
 Longtime resident	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Are a non-citizen who gained legal status. • Qualify for Family Unity status, protecting you from deportation or removal. • Are an applicant for adjustment under the Legal Immigration and Family Equity (LIFE) Act, enacted in 2000, who have been granted employment authorization. • Are an applicant for cancellation of removal and suspension of deportation who are granted employment authorization. • Are under an order of supervision who have employment authorization. • Are an applicant for registry who have been granted employment authorization.

Who's Eligible?

All household members (with legal status or not) should be included on your enrollment application. However, only those with a legal status are eligible to receive health care coverage.

Applying for Medicaid (HUSKY Health)

Most individuals who fall into one of the above categories will also need to meet a five-year residency requirement. You are excluded from this requirement if you are a child or are pregnant.

HAVE QUESTIONS? NEED HELP?

FREE In-Person Help:

To find a Certified Broker, a Community Enrollment Partner, a Certified Application Counselor, or an Enrollment Center:

- Visit: Learn.AccessHealthCT.com/Locations
- Call: 1-855-392-2428

